

Lincoln Amphitheatre FAQs

- 1. What is your performance schedule? June 18 – August 7, 2010. The production runs nightly, except Mondays.
- 2. What is the play about? The production is a play about the life of Abraham Lincoln, the man who many consider to be our greatest president. Ken Jones, our playwright, has done a wonderful job of creating a script that weaves Lincoln's boyhood years in Indiana with his presidential years. Audience members will gain an insight into the life of the man whose legacy continues to forge the future.
- 3. Why don't you have a companion piece? This is the second year for LINCOLN so we are working our way up to possibly adding other shows and concerts. We will keep you up to date on the performance schedule as we add other elements.
- 4. Is this a musical? LINCOLN is not a musical; it is a play that is enhanced by period music and singing.
- 5. How can I purchase tickets? You may purchase tickets on the website at LincolnAmphitheatre.com or by calling the amphitheatre at 1-800-264-4223.
- 7. What hours is the box office open? Daily; 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. CDT.
- 8. How many does Lincoln Amphitheatre seat? The Amphitheatre has the capacity to seat 1,500.
- 9. How long is the show? LINCOLN will last approximately one hour and forty-five minutes, with a fifteen minute intermission.
- 10. What time does the show start? LINCOLN begins at 7:30 p.m. CT.
- 11. Do I have to pay the gate fee? If you are coming into Lincoln State Park to see the production the gate fee will be waived. Simply tell the front gate that you are going to Lincoln Amphitheatre and they will let you through.
- 12. Can we volunteer? Of course! Our success depends on people that are willing to volunteer their time. We need ushers, docents, parking attendants, concession workers, and so on. This is also a wonderful way to earn tickets to LINCOLN. You may contact Eric Altheide at 1-800-264-4223 or 812-937-9730 x 223. You may also email Eric at eric@lincolnamphitheatre.com.
